SECTION I – OVERVIEW

The Canadian Screen Awards honour outstanding achievement in the Canadian film, television, and digital media industries and are administered by the Academy of Canadian Cinema & Television (“the Canadian Academy” or “the Academy”).

Each year Canadian Screen Week brings together more than 6000 key film professionals, craftspeople, and executives from across Canada to honour, celebrate, and promote the talent and accomplishments of our visual storytellers.

Each summer, the Canadian Academy issues a Call for Entries to Academy members and related industry members across Canada. Any Canadian film that meets the current eligibility criteria may be entered for consideration. Entries are submitted by the owner of the film or the owner’s Authorized Representative (see Definitions).

Note: The changes to the particular section in Film Rules & Regulations are marked by a star (★). For more information on 2020 Rules changes, please see our 2020 Canadian Screen Awards - Category and Rules & Regulations Change Highlights document on academy.ca/awards.

SECTION IX – FEATURE FILM NOMINATING PROCESS

- ✦ 1. Canadian Screen Award nominating committee members are chosen based on their high-quality work and collective expertise and experience working in the film industry. One Feature Film Nominating Committee selects the Nominees in below categories. A Chairperson will be selected by the Academy to head this Committee. Industry Professionals from across Canada will be invited to participate in consultation with the Academy's Rules & Regulations Committee and the Academy's Board of Directors. One Committee, which includes directors, writers, performers, producers, critics, distributors, programmers, and a member of the Academy's Board of Directors, will be responsible for selecting Nominees for:

- Best Motion Picture
- Direction
- Screenwriting (Original and Adapted)
- Performance (Male and Female Lead, Male and Female Support)

Note 1: The John Dunning Best First Feature Film Award will be presented during Canadian Screen Week and the recipient is selected by the nominating committee responsible for judging the Achievement in Direction category.

Note 2: The Academy Board of Directors reserves the right to select up to two (2) nominees in addition to five (5) Best Motion Pictures selected by the Nominating Committee.

- ✦ 2. Nominees for the following categories are selected by an online Membership Vote by the Academy's Cinema Craft Branch Members (i.e. Cinema Editors branch members determine nominees in Achievement in Editing category, Cinema Sound branch members determine nominees in Achievement in Overall Sound and Achievement in Sound Editing categories, etc):

- Art Direction / Production Design
- Costume Design
- Make-Up

- Cinematography
- Editing
- Music (Original Score and Original Song)
- Sound (Overall and Sound Editing)
- Visual Effects

3. Committee Members will be expected and encouraged to screen the entered films during their regular theatrical release or festival circuit whenever possible. In the event that a film cannot be screened in its ideal environment, the Committee Member will be supplied with a streaming video link of the film. The Committee will then convene to reach a consensus on the top five nominations in their Categories.
4. Films are evaluated according to specific criteria developed by the Academy's Rules & Regulations Committee and Board of Directors in consultation with branch members. Key members of the Music community, for example, developed the criteria used to assess Original Music Score and Original Song. The same principle was applied to Direction and Screenwriting and so on. It is not simply a matter of a well or poorly made film; it is the critical analysis of all aspects of the film that will determine the nominees.

Note: An entrant may be moved from lead performance to support performance or vice versa, or added to the eligible performers list as the Nominating Committee sees fit, provided the situation in question meets all other qualifying criteria.

These people are chosen based on filmmaking expertise and a consistent level of excellence in the film and documentary production industry.
2. Films are evaluated according to specific criteria developed by the Academy’s Rules & Regulations Committee and Board of Directors in consultation with branch members. Key members of the Theatrical Short and Documentary community developed the criteria used to assess the Feature Length and Short Documentary, Animated Short Film and Live Action Short Drama categories.
3. The Nominating Committees for Theatrical Shorts and Documentaries will select the Nominees in the Categories of Feature Length and Short Documentary, Animated Short Film, and Live Action Short Drama, as well as Best Editing and Cinematography in a Feature Length Documentary at a Nomination Screening Weekend. Nominees for final balloting will be selected by consensus.
- ★ 4. The Feature Documentary Nominating Committee will be regionally representative and diverse, composing of more than six members of the Documentary community. The Committee will select nominations in Feature Length Documentary and Feature Length Documentary Craft categories. Their vote will account for 60% of the winner vote. Final Membership Vote in Feature Length Documentary Categories will account for 40% of the winner vote.

SECTION XIV – NUMBER OF NOMINATIONS

Nominations for Theatrical Shorts and Documentaries will normally be made, and an Award will be given, in any Category in which there are four (4) or more eligible Entries. If there are four (4) eligible Entries, there will normally be two (2) nominations. If there are between five (5) and eight (8) eligible Entries, then there will normally be three (3) Nominations. In the case of “ties” in the aforementioned Categories, the Academy will decide the number of Nominations. If there are nine (9) or more eligible Entries then there will normally be five (5) Nominations.

NUMBER OF ENTRIES	NUMBER OF NOMINATIONS
Four (4)	Two (2)
Five (5) to Eight (8)	Three (3)
Nine or more (9+)	Five (5)

- ★ Note: In the Best Motion Picture Category, the number of nominations will be five (5). The Academy Board of Directors reserves the right to select up to two (2) nominations to the Best Motion Picture category, in addition to five (5) nominations selected by the Nominating Committee. In this case, the final number of nominations in Best Motion Picture will be seven (7).

SECTION XV – NOMINATING COMMITTEES POLICIES

A. Conflict of Interest

- a. Each Nominating Committee Member is required to sign a Conflict of Interest form prior to the commencement of judging. A Nominating Committee Member is not allowed to judge their own work in a film and must disclose any potential conflicts of interest in the work they are judging. The Academy will not tolerate any committee member who is determined to be advocating for an entry in which they have a vested personal or professional interest and considers such conduct to be unprofessional and contrary to the spirit of the Canadian Screen Awards. If an unexpected conflict of interest should arise, the Nominating Committee Member in question will be disqualified from voting;
- b. All Committee deliberations are strictly confidential. Nominating Committee Members may not disclose their discussions or final decisions outside the Committee Sessions;
- c. Nominating Ballots are sent directly from the Theatrical Shorts and Documentaries Committee site in sealed envelopes to the Ballot Accountants who will tabulate them.

B. Nominating Committee Prerogative

Nominations will not be put forth in Categories in which, in the opinion of the applicable Nominating Committee, the submissions entered do not meet Academy standards.

SECTION XVI – FINAL MEMBERSHIP VOTE (WINNERS)

1. Once the Nominees have been determined, unique and confidential log-in information will be prepared and emailed to all eligible Cinema Division Voting Members. The Canadian Screen Awards online voting website will be activated on February 18, 2020.
2. Along with their log-in information, online voting website information will be supplied to each Voting Member. This information will provide members access to the voting website for the duration of the voting period. Members will be able to return to the site as many times as needed during the voting period to complete the viewing and voting processes.
3. Streaming video of the Nominated Films will be available for eligible Voting Members during the voting period, and can be accessed on the online voting site.
4. All voting members currently registered in the Academy's Cinema Division will be eligible to vote in all categories of the film Awards.
5. Once the voting period is complete, Ballot Accountants will tabulate the results from all online votes cast.

⊕ TIEBREAKER (Added: November 18, 2019)

If there is a tie in voting for a category with nominees and winners chosen by the Academy membership, causing six (6) nominations in a category with five (5) nominees normally, the tiebreaker for the 5th and 6th nominations will be: (a) number of total votes received; if still tied: (b) member ranking; if still tied: (c) highest number of first place votes, second place votes, etc. If there is a tie after the winner-vote, in this scenario, then member ranking at the nominee stage is used as a tiebreaker, and the same logic described above is used to break any ties.

If there is a tie in final membership voting (winner vote) for a category where nominees were chosen by a jury, the jury vote ranking is used to break the tie. i.e. a film with the higher jury ranking wins.

For all of the above examples, If two or more entries remain tied after these tiebreakers have been applied, the shows tied will both be named as winners awarded within that category.
